

A Walk on Second Beach

Reflection Guide

Which of your senses do you engage most deeply on a walk? Sight, sound, smell, taste, or touch?

What grabs and holds your attention most when you're on a walk? I.e., landscapes, plants, flowers, animals, birds, people, wind, water, color, sound?

What did you find particularly beautiful or interesting in this video? Why?

